YEAR FOR PRIESTS 2009-2010

The Priesthood Today We're All in This Together

By James Martin, S.J. Catholic Update July 2009
Let's return to "preacher of the Word." All Catholics are called to understand and meditate on God's Word day and night, as the psalms say, but the priest is especially to be immersed in the Gospel. From this immersion he breaks open the Word and guides the faithful through the Gospels, helping to bring God's Word alive for them. "Shepherding souls" is also a service, in terms of caring for people's spiritual needs—not only through the sacraments, but also by counseling them, helping them through difficult times and helping them to pray. Finally, the "celebrator of divine worship" leads the community in prayer, especially while presiding at the Eucharist. All these priestly roles flow not just from Vatican II, but fundamentally from the example of Jesus. In short, these are models of service.
