YEAR FOR PRIESTS 2009-2010

Five Ways to Support My Parish Priest

By Lorene Hanley Duquin Our Sunday Visitor

2. Watch Your Expectations.

Sometimes, people have unrealistic expectations of what a priest “should be” or “should do.” They want Father to be present at every parish function, every community event, and every time someone has a question, concern, or special need.

It's important to remember that priests are people, too, with the same normal human limits. Just as you need a day or two off every week, so does your priest. In fact, studies have shown that time off is important for priests, to help them maintain both their spiritual focus and their energy levels. One priest recognized that after concerned parishioners insisted that he take a day off each week, he was actually able to accomplish more. We can all forget to take care of ourselves now and then; it doesn't hurt to remind your priest to do so.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION NEWS

Adult Bible Study of Israel's Story (Part 2)

Join with other members of our faith community to learn how the story of Israel's past relates to our lives today in a parish-wide Bible study beginning January 21. The seven-week study will take place on Thursday evenings in the parish office conference room from 7:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. through March 4. No special training or knowledge is needed, but a Bible is necessary. An $18 fee is required to help defray the cost of study materials. To sign up or for more information, call Jack Kampfer at 621-5109, ext. 226.

New Year's Resolutions

We are into a new year and most of us are looking at our lives and making resolutions for change in 2010. Popular resolutions include losing weight, exercising more, and eating healthier. Why not make some spiritual resolutions? Why not try to spend 10-15 minutes each day reading and reflecting on a scripture passage. Keep a journal of your reflections, your dialogues with God, and read them over periodically. You'll see how your faith has grown over time and you'll gain a greater understanding of yourself.

This year the Right Reverend Robert Fitzpatrick, Episcopal Bishop of Hawaii will be the Presider and Rev. March for Life

January 22, 2010

4:00 - 6:00 PM

Hawaii State Capitol

In Hawai'i, thousands of children have lost their lives to abortion, their voices silenced without the chance to be heard. The March for Life on January 22, 2010 will feature luminaries to serve as a silent witness in remembrance of their lives. (Luminaries are small paper bags with lights inside.) Our goal is to place 1,000 luminaries that will light up the Hawai'i State Capitol grounds. Immediately following the march, a brief memorial ceremony will also be conducted at the Capitol Rotunda. For a suggested donation of just $5 each, you can order luminaries to commemorate lives ended by abortion and support our local pro-life pregnancy resource centers so that other lives may be saved. With your support, we can be a light for the world and show our respect for those who have been lost to abortion in Hawai'i. Order luminaries in advance by sending the attached order form to one of the participating charities. The luminaries will be placed for you at the Capitol on January 22, 2010. Mahalo nui loa for partaking in March for Life 2010 in this way.

For March information, contact us at 585-8205.
