RELIGIOUS EDUCATION NEWS

No Children's Religious Education Classes Until September 20.

Pope Benedict XVI's Encyclical: "In Hope We Were Saved"

In his encyclical Pope Benedict asks: "is the Christian faith ... for us today a life-changing and life-sustaining hope? Is it 'performative' for us—is it a message which shapes our life in a new way, or is it just 'information' which, in the meantime, we have set aside and which now seems to us to have been superseded by more recent information?" In the search for an answer, Pope Benedict discusses the dialogue involved in the rite of Baptism. "First of all the priest asked what name the parents had chosen for the child, and then he continued with the question: 'What do you ask of the Church?' Answer: 'Faith'. 'And what does faith give you?' 'Eternal life'. According to this dialogue, the parents were seeking access to the faith for their child, communion with believers, because they saw in faith the key to 'eternal life'. Today as in the past, this is what being baptized, becoming Christians, is all about: it is not just an act of socialization within the community, not simply a welcome into the Church. The parents expect more for the one to be baptized: they expect that faith, which includes the corporeal nature of the Church and her sacraments, will give life to their child—eternal life. Faith is the substance of hope."

Are You Interested In Completing The Sacraments Of Initiation?

The sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist are the sacraments that mark full initiation into the Catholic faith. If you are Baptized, 18 years of age or older, and are interested in receiving the sacrament of Confirmation and, if needed, First Communion, please call Jack Kampfer at the parish office, 621-5109, ext. 226. If there is sufficient interest, we will start new classes in late summer on Sunday mornings, 10:30 AM – 11:45 AM.

Seminarian Education Fund Collection

Seminary education for our future priests can last up to eight years and include not only academic, spiritual and pastoral formation, but personal formation as well. This comprehensive education is needed to help produce priests who are committed, prayerful, joyful, and generous in ministering to God's people. Consider making a gift to the 2009 SPECIAL COLLECTION to provide the best education and formation possible for these young men. Your gift will help in many ways that are simply immeasurable! Mahalo!

YEAR FOR PRIESTS 2009-2010

The Priesthood Today We're All in This Together

By James Martin, S.J. Catholic Update July 2009

Many priests find themselves drawn towards one or another of the many models of priesthood that have been popular since Vatican II. For me, one that works well is the "servant leader." Jesus shows us what a servant leader ought to be when he washes the feet of the apostles at the Last Supper: "For I have given you an example, that you also should do as I have done to you" (Jn 13:15). That's part of the ministry of the bishop, too: the pope himself is traditionally described as the "servant of the servants of God."
