RELIGIOUS EDUCATION NEWS

No Children's Religious Education Classes Until September 19.

Summer Family Faith Activities

Religious education classes do not resume until the fall, but that does not mean that we should take a vacation from our faith. We may feel tempted to skip Mass during the summer, but we still have an obligation to attend Mass on Sunday. You can make attending Mass something to look forward to by planning a fun family activity afterward. Maybe taking the family to breakfast or making a special meal, or going to a movie matinee. We believe that Jesus is fully present at the Mass in his Word, the assembly and the Eucharist. Why would we want to miss Him?

OLS NEEDS YOU!

We are now accepting resumes for the position of Coordinator of Religious Education for PS-4 year olds to Grade 8. If you are interested please call the parish office at 621-5109 ext. 221.

Father's Day

At the back of the church is our Father's Day Book of Remembrance. We invite everyone to inscribe the names of all the fathers, living or deceased, that you wish to pray for. The Masses during the Father's Day weekend, June 19th & 20th, will be offered for our living and deceased fathers.

YEAR FOR PRIESTS 2009-2010

"Priesthood 101"

Celibacy—Gift for the Priest and Gift for the Church

Once a Priest, Always a Priest

When a man is ordained a priest, an indelible spiritual character is placed on his soul. The vocation and mission he receives at Ordination marks him permanently. If just reason exists, a priest can be discharged from his priestly functions, but he cannot become a layman again. Once a priest, always a priest.
