RELIGIOUS EDUCATION NEWS

Religious Education Classes This Sunday at 10:30 AM.

Most Parents Have Registered Their Children. Have You?

Most parents have registered their children for religious education classes, but if you are among the few who have not, registration is still open via mail or at the parish office for children in pre-school to Grade 8. We also continue to register adults seeking Baptism, Confirmation and First Communion.

Fees are as follows:

PS (4 year olds) through Grade 8 $20.00

First Communion (2nd year of prep) & Adult
Baptism (RCIA) $30.00

For more information, call Jack Kampfer at 621-5109, ext. 226.

Sign Up Now for RCIA Sessions for Un-Baptized Adults

In the late fall we will once again begin sessions for UN-BAPTIZED adults who wish to be baptized, and for adults of other faiths who wish to come into full communion with the Roman Catholic Church. If you are aware of anyone in our parish community who has expressed an interest in becoming a Catholic, please encourage them to contact Jack at 621-5109, ext. 226.

Adult Bible Study of Israel's Story (Part 1)

Join with other members of our faith community to learn how the story of Israel's past relates to our lives today with a parish-wide Bible study beginning October 22. The seven-week study will continue on Thursday evenings in the parish office conference room from 7:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. through December 10. No special training or knowledge is needed, but a Bible is necessary. An $18 fee is required to help defray the cost of study materials. To sign up or for more information, call Jack at the parish office, 621-5109, ext. 226.

Safe Environment Classes

November 1, children enrolled in religious education classes whose parents have signed the permission statement will receive a "safe environment" class approved and provided by the diocese. A separate permission form will be sent home prior to the class for parents who may have overlooked the permission statement when registering. Children without specific parent permission will not be allowed to attend the class and should not come to class that morning. These classes are age-appropriate and required by the diocese. Parents who indicated that they wished to see the content of the classes are invited to attend a parent session on Sunday, October 25, 10:30 a.m. – 11:45 a.m. in the Parish Hall.

LITURGY NOTES

World Mission Sunday

Today, World Mission Sunday, with Catholics of the world, we are called to offer, at this Eucharistic celebration, our prayers and our generous financial support, through the Propagation of the Faith, to continue the mission of our Lord – to help the poor and suffering experience the healing love and peace of Jesus. Please use the envelopes found around the church to give charitably to this cause.

Catholic Charities Sunday

Next weekend, there will be a special collection for the Hawaii Catholic Charities. Many of our local Church's outreach programs extend from Catholic Charities such as programs for the poor and the elderly. Please consider giving generously to this charity.

All Souls' Day Book of Remembrance

As in previous years, the names of loved ones who have died will be placed in a special "Parish Book of Remembrance" to be enshrined in our sanctuary during the month of November. Please use the forms on the usher's table and place it in the collection boxes.

YEAR FOR PRIESTS 2009-2010

The Priesthood Today—We're All in This Together

By James Martin, S.J. Catholic Update July 2009

Occasionally there is talk about ordaining married men, a practice of the first millennium that was stopped for various reasons. (Remember, even St. Peter was married—we know this since Jesus healed his mother-in-law; see Mk 1:29-31). Perhaps the strongest argument in favor of priestly celibacy is the thousand-year-old tradition that we believe is guided by the Holy Spirit. Also, debates over ordaining women to the priesthood have been ruled out explicitly by Pope John Paul II. But one thing is certain: If priestly vocations continue to fall, we will become a less Eucharistic Church. Without people to celebrate divine worship, how can we continue to be a Church that is centered on the Eucharist?
