EASTER SUNDAY OF THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD

Weekend of April 19-20, 2014

MESSAGE FROM FR. RICHARD

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Alleluia, Christ is Risen!

I, Fr. Yanto and the whole parish staff want to wish everyone a very blessed and happy Easter.

Strangely I find this one of the hardest times of the year to prepare a homily. It's not because there is nothing to say but because there is so much to say. Everything we are and do as Catholics finds meaning in these days.

Without Jesus death and resurrection, our faith makes no sense.

Without Jesus death and resurrection, the Holy Spirit would not be poured forth. We'd have no life, no Church, no sacraments...nothing of any great import.

Without Jesus death and resurrection, our sins would not be forgiven. All that would await us would be eternal death.

Jesus gave himself on the cross to save us from sin. He rose from the dead so that we could live in His Spirit. "For Christ, while we were still helpless, yet died at the appointed time for the ungodly...But God proves his love for us in that while we were still sinners Christ died for us...Indeed, if, while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, how much more, once reconciled, will we be saved by his life." (Rom. 5:6,8,10)

Jesus Christ lives! And we live in Him! Alleluia!

Fr. Richard, ss.cc.

Experiencing Resurrection Today

By Kristina M. DeNeve, Adult Faith Formation Coordinator (Diocese of Honolulu)

When was the last time you were really blown away, surprised by something that far, far exceeded your expectations? A time when reality and/or awareness moved you beyond your deepest hopes and dreams? I ask because this moment was a glimpse for you of the Resurrection.

The Resurrection is not a once-only event, happening to Jesus after Good Friday, happening to us at our death or at Jesus' second coming. Resurrection is new life. All new life. Any new life. Anytime we live (if only for a moment!) beyond decay.

Too many of us think of the resurrection as something that only matters when it comes to our being sick and dying, comforting us today so we can face death more easily. While the resurrection certainly encompasses this comforting feeling, our beliefs and faith in the resurrection mean so much more.

Resurrection gives you and I new life. Today. Resurrection is meant to impact how I live my life today. And not just today, aka, Easter Sunday. But every today. Resurrection is our best news. Have you experienced the Resurrection?
