TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Weekend of September 10-11, 2016

MESSAGE FROM FR. AJITH

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

In last week's message from the pastor I ended with a new meaning for the acronym OLS as Offering our Lives in Service. As a Catholic Christian we have so many opportunities of offering our lives in service. Primarily to our own families, to the community and to the bigger society. Our service to the community of OLS is a simple and easy one to do.

Last Sunday we had six young parishioners who were installed as altar servers and sacristans. As young as they are they wanted to share their part in serving the community. Talking about service, this month of September can be referred to as the month of service for us at OLS since all of the Sundays of this month we have an installation for various services taking place: Last Sunday we had the installation of the new altar servers and sacristans, this Sunday we have installed the new Parish Pastoral Council, next Sunday we will commission our religious education teachers, and finally the last Sunday of the month I will be installed as the pastor of OLS by our beloved Bishop Larry Silva.

All these ceremonies are not just rituals but a reminder for us that by baptism we are all ministers and this also encourages each member of OLS to take up a ministry to fulfill his/her call by sharing our time, talent and treasure with our community and for God.

Moreover this Sunday the first reading begins with a command from God to Moses, "Go down at once to your People....." We are also asked to go to our people to serve. How are you going to do your part in building our community???
