Today's readings challenge us to reflect on the true state of our hearts as it relates to stewardship. Do we think of stewardship as something we take care of once a year, simply a matter of ticking off boxes on a commitment card — or do we choose to embrace it as a spirituality and a way of life that allows us to grow in conformity to Christ every day?

Our first reading, from the Book of Sirach, teaches that our good God has given us the freedom to make this choice — "Before man are life and death, good and evil, whichever he chooses shall be given him."

The concept of stewardship helps us live out this fundamental choice to put God first. Stewardship is not meant to be a mere external exercise that we participate in on an occasional basis. It is meant to be embraced as a way of life — a life that involves a continuous conversion of heart.

In our Gospel passage from Matthew, Jesus illustrates the difference between an external observance of the law and a true conversion of heart, saying, "You have heard that it was said ... you shall not kill ... But I say to you, whoever is angry with his brother will be liable to judgment." Our Lord is asking us not only for exterior acts, but for a true change of heart. In stewardship terms, that means seeing everything as a gift from Him, to be used for His glory and the good of others.

In the week ahead, let us examine the state of our hearts and ask whether we have allowed stewardship to shape the way we live each day. When we do, we open ourselves to its deeper meaning and its power to change our hearts. The choice is ours.

Living STATIONS OF THE CROSS
March 27 at 6:00 PM

Our parish is inviting parishioners to take part in the LIVING STATIONS OF THE CROSS presentation this Lent. This meaningful prayer experience brings the Stations to life and helps our community enter more deeply into Christ's Passion.

We are looking for individuals willing to serve in a variety of roles, including cast members, readers, and support crew. No acting experience is necessary, and participants of different ages are welcome. This a beautiful opportunity to serve the parish and grow spiritually during the Lenten Season.

If you are interested or would like more information, please contact Udie Algozo at olsedge@gmail.com or visit the parish website.
