SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
Weekend of July 18-19, 2015

MESSAGE FROM FR. RICHARD

The Scriptures this Sunday speak of shepherds. Jesus came to care for and save God's people who are "like sheep without a shepherd." (Mk. 6:34) Sheep without a shepherd are sheep that are pretty soon going to be lost, much like us, who would be completely lost in sin without the love and mercy of Jesus. Jesus is the Good Shepherd who "lays down his life for his sheep" (Jn. 6:11) on the cross. It is his saving sacrifice that we celebrate in every Mass. It's no wonder that one of the earliest images that Christians made of Jesus was the "Good Shepherd". Probably before there were crucifixes there were pictures of Jesus, the Shepherd.

The Hebrew word for "shepherding" can also be translated "feeding." Jesus feeds us with himself in Holy Communion, so much does he love us. In turn, he calls us to serve as shepherds for those around us, feeding them with his love and truth. He bestows on us so many blessings of grace every day and he gives us the great gift, Himself. We are called to be stewards of those gifts, showing our gratitude to God by using them for the body of Christ and for God's poor.

Fr. David Lupo will celebrate the 9:00 AM Mass this Sunday, since I will be at Blessed Sacrament for the Latin Mass. Fr. David has frequently taken my place when I've been on vacation and when I have the Mass at Blessed Sacrament one Sunday a month. This is his last time with us, as he has been assigned by Fr. Johnathan, our Provincial, to Massachusetts as of mid-August. I'm so grateful for his presence and his ministry at OLS. He will be sorely missed. We wish him well in his new ministry at St. Mary's Parish, Fairhaven MA.

CATHOLIC CAFÉ: "CATHOLICISM"

Episode 9: "The Life of His Love: Prayer and the Life of the Spirit"

July 26, 2015 at 10:30 AM (Library)

Join the Catholic Café as we continue the Catholicism series by Fr. Robert Barron. In Episode 9, Father Barron explores Catholic spirituality, which is centered on prayer. As the Catechism of the Catholic Church states: "Prayer is the lifting up of the mind and the heart to God." On pilgrimage to the places where the great saints and spiritual masters lived, Father Barron explores the different types of prayer: contemplation; adoration; petition; and intercession. In telling the stories of Catholics like Thomas Merton, St. Theresa of Avila and St. John of the Cross, Fr. Barron demonstrates how the human person can be transformed through prayer that manifests a deep, spiritual commitment centered in Christ.

New Parish Hall & OLS Capital Campaign

Thanks to all of you for checking out our Parish Hall Open House last week! We hope you have an idea of just how the New Restrooms and Hall will be laid out and compare to the existing hall. Our volunteers certainly appreciated everyone there and especially giving out the door prizes.

We are close to reaching 50% of our goal! Thank you to all of you who have pledged! That's 316 of us! We continue to encourage all our Parishioners who have not yet pledged for your support. Also, if you have any family, friends, or just know others that may want to pledge, feel free to stop by our display after mass for pledge forms, envelopes, letters, and to answer any questions.

In the near future, we will be soliciting out business community for donations. If you know are particular business owner or have an acquaintance, we ask for your help by letting us know. Just stop by the Forward in Faith table after mass, or contact any one of the Development Committee members.

WHY WE GAVE

We are a young family just starting out – and have children as well. We didn't think we had much to spare because times are really hard. But after prayerful consideration, we felt compelled to answer the call to stewardship and be witnesses in the process of this endeavor. If you use a 3 or 5-year payment plan, it really is palatable and possible. We were surprised we were able to consider a more substantial gift – a little at a time on a definitive schedule.

We especially like the electronic funds transfer method as we don't have to think about it. It's neat how there are other methods of payment that seem would fit anyone's preference. It's an awesome feeling to know that we are contributing to the legacy of our children and their children. On a side note, our donation is a tax deduction too!

There is a drop box in the church to receive your pledges and payments. The box is located in the church near the baptism font.

Jesus' Idea on How to Start Evangelizing

By Kristina M. DeNeve, Adult Faith Formation Coordinator (Diocese of Honolulu)

After sending out his followers two by two, Jesus gathers them back in today's Gospel. Notice that when Jesus sent the apostles out, he did not send them out for a long time. Instead, it's like they went on a service trip or an immersion experience. Saint Peter, our first pope, did not start evangelizing by starting a church in Rome. Instead, Peter went with a friend to a nearby town that he knew, stayed a few days, and then returned to tell Jesus about his adventures.

So too does it begin with us. Signing up to work with a domestic violence center, becoming a Big Brother/Sister for a youth or taking 3rd graders out to clean a park are the kinds of ways St. Peter would have started "evangelizing" if he were here today. Evangelizing doesn't start by leaving your family to travel to Africa. It starts like it did for the apostles, at home. In "small" ways.

And don't forget today's great ending where we return to Jesus and he rests with us awhile!
