PENTECOST

Weekend of May 14-15, 2016

A STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION FOR PENTECOST

Today is the Solemnity of Pentecost. One of the most ancient feasts of the Church, Pentecost is mentioned and explained in both the Acts of the Apostles (today's First Reading) and in St. Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians. The name comes quite simply from the Greek word, Pentekoste, which meant "the 50th day" as Pentecost is 50 days after Easter Sunday (counting Easter).

Pentecost is often called the "birthday of the Church" as it was on this day — with the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles and about 120 followers of Christ, including our Blessed Mother Mary and other men and women — that Christ's mission on earth is completed.

However, that mission continues with us. We, too, have received the power of the Holy Spirit through Baptism, Confirmation, the Eucharist, and other sacraments. It is this Holy Spirit that allows us to be the Lord's Disciples actively working in today's Church and today's society. Nevertheless, we must accept and recognize that fact.

In a homily given on Pentecost Sunday 20 years ago Pope St. John Paul II said, "In the Acts of the Apostles, St. Luke describes the extraordinary manifestation of the Holy Spirit. This divine gift is light and power, light to proclaim the Gospel truth and power to infuse each of us with the courage of witnessing to the faith." Living out this call is the essence of stewardship.

Living Catholic in the 808 Helping Others Recognize the Holy Spirit

By Kristina M. DeNeve, Adult Faith Formation Coordinator (Diocese of Honolulu)

Most people of faith I know have a deep love for God the Father and/or for Jesus Christ, but, overall, not enough Christians have a devotion to the Holy Spirit.

This is our loss. After all, it is the Holy Spirit who helps us notice the beauty of a sunset.

it is the Holy Spirit who nudges us to help a homeless person.

it is the Holy Spirit who clears our calendar that one weekend we really need a break from our busy life.

it is the Holy Spirit who makes good come from our suffering.

it is the Holy Spirit who makes our heart swell with love for our child.

it is the Holy Spirit who gives us peace at the oddest of moments.

it is the Holy Spirit who gives us a devotion for God the Creator and/or for Jesus Christ, for the Saints, for our Church, for Eucharist, etc...

Quite simply, without the Holy Spirit, we would not be Christians.

How do we help others recognize the Holy Spirit? Two ways: 1) tell others that X event was the Holy Spirit acting in your life; 2) affirm with others that Y event was the Holy Spirit acting in their life.

MISSION STATEMENT

Our Lady of Sorrows Church is a Catholic, faith-filled community united and founded on the teachings and love of Jesus Christ to serve the needs of all parishioners and, through its ministries, to foster and nurture their growth in faith.

Our Lady of Sorrows Church believes in stewardship as a way of Christian living. As stewards, it is our responsibility to give back to God the best that He has given us, by giving of our time, talent and treasure.

As a unified and welcoming parish of the Universal Church, we reach out to all of God's people through education, through social action, through worship and through proclaiming and living the Gospel of Jesus Christ.
