TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
Weekend of September 24-25, 2016

A STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION FOR THE TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Throughout his letters St. Paul gives more than hints as to what we should be doing to seek holiness and to live lives that stress Christian virtues. In fact, his comments are often direct and to the point. The excerpt from Paul's First Letter to Timothy, our Second Reading for today, contains one of those passages, which though brief, is the formula for seeking holiness and living lives of stewardship.

Paul says to Timothy, and thus to us, "...pursue righteousness, devotion, faith, love, patience, and gentleness. Compete well for the faith." Of course, we are aware that in spite of its simplicity, that is a group of instructions that can be very difficult to really live out. Yet, that is exactly our calling. It all begins with pursuing "righteousness." We tend to think of the meaning of that as being "goodness," as in "pursuing" being a good person, but its real roots are deeper than that.

Based upon the original Greek a more accurate translation might be "pursuing justice." More accurately the translation would be "pursuing justice as Jesus defines it." That is really our charge — to seek lives of stewardship and discipleship in response to the Lord's call to us. The Greek philosopher Socrates said, "All men's souls may be immortal, but the souls of the righteous are immortal and divine."

Living Catholic in the 808 Some Benefits of Serving Others

By Clarissa M. Emayo, “Love One Another” Soup Kitchen & Food Pantry, Holy Cross Parish, Kauai

Serving others is part of our faith and the more we serve others the stronger our faith will become. The more we will want to pray and build a relationship with the Lord. We will seek the Lord often and listen for His voice. We will try to make the world around us a better place and treat people with love and care.

Serving others helps us to get out of ourselves, to die to ourselves and to see the world around us in a better light. We realize that we are here for others and not for ourselves and that God will take care of us if we only take care of others. We begin to understand and experience why Jesus wants us to love one another and why we should give if we are asked and why we should not judge.

When we serve others we fall deeper in love with Jesus and our relationship with Him becomes the most important thing.
