MESSAGE FROM FR. AJITH

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

ALOHA, everyone! Mahalo for accepting and welcoming me so graciously to Our Lady of Sorrows Church.

This week, as I begin my journey as the pastor of OLS, two significant but quite different events are happening. First, we have been receiving bulletins over all the media about Hurricanes Madeline and Lester approaching our islands. On the other side of the world--in Rome, Vatican City is mounting preparations for the canonization of our latest saint, Mother Teresa of Calcutta, the Saint of the Gutter.

While getting ready for the possible onslaught of rain and wind of the hurricanes here, I am also wishing to be in that momentous celebration at St. Peter's Basilica. I realize that like many others who will be participating physically in the canonization, I however will be standing also on HOLY GROUND in this parish church, " my Mission Ground".

Mother Teresa's canonization reminds me of my own call to see the HOLY GROUND under my feet--as I do God's mission as your pastor. Her words, "Not all of us can do great things, but we can do small things with great love" inspire and encourage me as I begin my ministry here at OLS Church. I may not achieve "great things" but believe I can do things with great faith and love. I am ready and willing to serve you as a shepherd who smells like his sheep ( to quote Pope Francis).

OLS--Our Lady of Sorrows: can also stand for Offer Lives in Service. Mother Teresa teaches us that we need to give everything for God and His children... to follow the Christian principle: "Give until it hurts.

Let us join hands and walk together in the journey of building God's Kingdom here in our neighborhood!

Fr. Ajith, ss.cc.

Living Catholic in the 808

Evangelization for “Typical” Catholics

By Kristina M. DeNeve, Adult Faith Formation Coordinator (Diocese of Honolulu)

Let's face it: Catholic Christians tend to have an aversion to the term “evangelization.” It evokes images of knocking on doors, of being asked uncomfortable questions. Even those of us who do acts of evangelization tend not to use the term, as Matthew Kelly found in his research on what makes for a Dynamic Catholic.

Yet, there is no denying that the Gospel emphatically demands that we must share the Good News with others. We cannot simply read our Bible at home or go to Mass on Sunday and call ourselves followers of Jesus. We are called to serve others, to engage in works of mercy, to show a preferential option for the poor, to work for justice, and, yes, to use words to tell others about Jesus Christ.

Deep down, we Catholics KNOW we are supposed to share our faith with others. And, deep down, we WANT to do better about sharing our faith. But how?

This weekly column, “Living Catholic in the 808” will provide one, small answer to this question. Week by week, join us for practical tips on what evangelization can look like for “typical” Catholics. C'mon! We can do this!!
